Frequently Asked Questions

Grand Island VA Creative Arts Competition

Can I Enter Multiple Artwork/Creative Writing pieces?

No one Veteran will be allowed to enter more than three art categories and one group category in the art division. No one Veteran will be allowed to enter more than three creative writing categories in the creative writing division. No one Veteran will be allowed to enter more than three solo categories and three group categories in the dance, drama and music divisions. A separate entry form is required for each category entered in each division.

Can I Re-Enter the Same Piece from Last Year?

Veterans are not permitted to enter a piece of art or creative writing submission that has been previously submitted to any local Creative Arts Competition associated with the National Veterans Creative Arts Competition.

Can I Submit an Entry I Created Many Years Ago?

Veterans must verify that each piece of art or creative writing submission being entered into the Grand Island VA Creative Arts Competition was created after April 1, 2020 unless submitting into the Military Combat Experience Category (see category list for details).

When Will the Local GIVA Creative Arts Competition Winners be Notified?

1st, 2nd, and 3rd place winners of the Grand Island VA Local Creative Arts Competition will be notified on Monday, February 8, 2021. All Creative Writing pieces will be available for viewing on Tuesday February 9, 2021 from 8am – 6pm in the Recreation Hall on the 2nd Floor at the Grand Island VA Hospital.

Date subject to change based on COVID-19 restrictions at the time of showcase**

When Can I Pick Up My Entries?

All local First-place winning entries in each Art Category will be submitted to the National Art Division Competition Judging. All local first-place winning entries will need to remain secured at the Grand Island VA until the results of the national competition are received in December 2021.

Further artwork pick-up instructions will be provided to all other GIVA local Creative Arts Competition participants by mail after the date of the showcase.

When Will the National Veterans Creative Arts Competition Occur?

Due to multiple factors including current public health concerns, the National Veterans Creative Arts Competition judging phase will now occur in October and November of 2021.

Grand Island VA Creative Arts Competition

How Will My Entries be Judged by National?

All first place winning entries of the GIVA Local Creative Arts Competition will be submitted to the National Creative Arts Competition electronically for judging. Detailed color photographs of all artwork will be submitted and Creative Writing entries will be submitted as word documents. As with other juried competitions the results are based on subjective reviews by a panel of judges. The scores are not shared publicly, and the judges' decisions are final.

When Will the National Veterans Creative Arts Competition Winners be Notified?

The results of the National Veterans Creative Arts Competition will be announced in December 2021. All Veterans who place first at the national level of the competition will be invited to the Festival.

Following the national judging, the first-place pieces from each art division category should be shipped to the National Veterans Creative Arts Festival host VA facility location. Entries that are extremely fragile may not be shipped and will instead be displayed in the Festival art exhibit as a poster image.

NO GLASS PROTECTIVE LAYER (on flat art) MAY BE USED WHEN SHIPPING NATIONAL FIRST PLACE ARTWORK TO THE FESTIVAL. PLEXIGLAS MUST BE USED INSTEAD. Artwork placed under protective glass and shipped to the NVCAF host VA facility will forfeit their placement in the national competition due to the risk of potential injury to persons unpacking the piece and potential damage to the artwork.

When Will the National Veterans Creative Arts Festival Occur?

All gold medal winners from the National Competition will be invited to participate in the 40th Annual National Veterans Creative Arts Festival in St. Petersburg, Florida April 18-25, 2022.

Veterans who are invited to the Festival and accept the invitation to attend must commit to participating fully in the Festival week to the best of their ability. This includes all workshops, seminars, rehearsals, outings, exhibitions, stage show performance, etc.

Art Division Rules

Grand Island VA Creative Arts Competition

Entries submitted into the Art Division will be judged via digital image judging process. Entries will be judged based upon the merit of the originality, creativity and design elements of the work, as well as the use of materials and artistry of skill, and total presentation including the elements of art: line, space, color, form, media, texture, composition, balance, and unity. Title, mounting and framing will also be considered.

Note: Following the national judging, the first-place pieces from each art division category will be shipped to the National Veterans Creative Arts Festival host VA facility location. NO GLASS PROTECTIVE LAYER (on flat art) MAY BE USED WHEN SHIPPING NATIONAL FIRST PLACE ARTWORK TO THE FESTIVAL. PLEXIGLAS MUST BE USED INSTEAD.

All entries must have been completed after April 1, 2020

- Veterans need to communicate (as early as January 2021) with their local VA facility to find out their local competition deadline date.
- First-place ties in a category at the local competition MUST be re-judged at the local level as only one entry for each category will be accepted from each VA facility. A formal competition is not required at the local level but is strongly encouraged. All eligible Veterans should be given the opportunity to participate regardless of degree of talent.
- All artwork entered (except for the Military Combat Experience category #14) must have been completed/photographed after April 1, 2020. Artwork submitted in a prior year in any form of completion may not be entered again.
- Each VA facility may submit only one (1) entry in each art category to the National level of the Art Competition.
- Complete the art entry form with detail about the mediums and techniques used. This information is crucial to the judging process and is shared with the judges. Do not include Veteran diagnosis information or personal statements in the mediums/techniques section. This information is not part of the judging process unless submitting an entry into Military Combat Experience, Group Art, or the Special Recognition categories in which case a separate write-up is required.
- Artwork created by a group of Veterans (two or more Veterans) will qualify for entry into the National Art Competition. See Category #34 - Group Art.
- All art entries must be created solely by the Veteran and/or Veterans submitting the art entry.

Grand Island VA Creative Arts Competition

- Reproductions of original two-dimensional artwork, photographs, or computer-generated art (including inkjet, Giclee and other types of reproduction methods) will not be accepted. The use of Giclee is only acceptable in Printmaking (category 9), Black and White Photography (category 11), Color Photography (category 12) and Digital Art (category 13).
- All paintings, drawings, watercolors, pastels, photographs, graphics, collages and digital art must be exhibition ready (ready to hang for display).
- If an entry contains a craft kit, it must go into a craft kit category unless otherwise stated in the category definitions (for example: soapstone carving kits go into the carving category).
- GUNS, BLADES, KNIVES or other WEAPONS will not be accepted due to VA regulations banning these items from VA facilities.
- No one Veteran will be allowed to enter more than three art categories and one group category in the art division.
- Dioramas, dipped art, and puzzles (including puzzle kits) will not be accepted. Diorama definition: a model representing a SCENE with three-dimensional figures. For further clarification please contact the national art chairpersons.
- Two electronic jpeg images may be submitted for each two-dimensional entry. Please include one image of the art entry in its entirety and one image of the art entry in more detail.
- Three electronic jpeg images for each three-dimensional entry will be accepted. Please include one image from the front of the art entry in its entirety, one image from the back or side of the art entry in its entirety, and one image of the art entry close up in more detail.
- Sets in the fine arts and applied arts can contain no more than three pieces. Chess sets are an exception. The pieces must relate to one another in an obvious way to the judges in order to be classified as a set. No sets are allowed in the kit categories, unless a single kit contains a set such as a set of suncatcher Christmas ornaments in which case, no more than 3 pieces may be submitted for judging.

Further clarification of sets:

- Examples of 2D sets are diptychs, triptychs, or series—no more than 3 separate pieces of artwork that are clearly intended to be displayed together as ONE PIECE with equal size and framing. Imagery/content must relate to each other in clear and obvious way.
- 3D sets must relate to each other in an obvious way and may contain no more than 3 pieces for judging purposes.

Grand Island VA Creative Arts Competition

- Entries that include personal collections such as spoons, medals, or coins (where the content of the entry is not created by the Veteran) will not be accepted.
- Entries that are first-place national competition winning pieces MUST be fully assembled when shipped.

Artwork Size Restrictions

Each national art entry must be able to fit into one box. The box can be up to 150 lbs., up to 165 inches in length and girth combined. Length cannot exceed 108 inches. To measure packages use the following formula: length + 2x width + 2x height

- Step 1. Determining Length - Measure the longest side of the package, rounding to the nearest inch. This is your length.
- Step 2. Determining Girth (2x Width + 2x Height). Measure the width of the package, rounding to the nearest inch. Multiply this number by 2. Measure the height of the package, rounding to the nearest inch. Multiply this number by 2. Add these two numbers together. This is your girth.
- Step 3. Add the length and the girth together. This is your package measurement. *Entries that exceed the weight and measurements indicated above will be disqualified.

Art Division Categories

Grand Island VA Creative Arts Competition

Fine Art Sub-Division Categories:

1. Acrylic Painting - The creation of original work by applying acrylic paint to a surface. The surface is not limited to canvas; it can be on wood, plaster, leather, metal, glass, etc.
2. Oil Painting - The creation of original work by applying oil paint, oil sticks, or oil pastels to a surface. The surface can be canvas, wood, plaster, leather, metal, etc.
3. Watercolor - The creation of work using watercolor paint. The surface is not limited to canvas; it can be on wood, plaster, leather, metal, etc.
4. Monochromatic Drawing - A monochromatic drawing consists of lines that use a single color and shades of that color that may be done using pencil, ink, charcoal, etc. Any use of additional color should be entered into colored drawing.
5. Colored Drawing - A colored drawing consists of lines of two or more colors and may be done using colored pencils, markers, etc.
6. Pastels - An art medium in the form of a stick, consisting of pure powder pigment and a binder. A pastel is usually a painting rather than drawing because the color is applied in masses rather than lines. Encaustic painting should be entered into this category. Note: Oil pastels should be entered into Oil Painting.
7. Sculpture - Art created by shaping, combining, modeling or casting materials such as plastic, clay, textiles, wax or polymers into a work of art. They may be free standing or relief. Note: Carved sculptures should be entered into the Carving category, metal sculptures should be entered into the Metalwork category, and glass sculptures should be entered in the Glasswork category.
8. Pyrography - A design burned into a surface by using wood burning tools. The design must be original. This process is typically done on wood but can also be done on leather and other surfaces. If transfers or tracings are used, the piece must be entered in the Transfer/Engraving Art Kit category.
9. Printmaking - A multiple-replica (more than one copy or print) art form. It consists of an original print or proof from a master plate created through such processes as lithography, etching, woodcut, engraving, etc. Computer graphics must be entered into Digital Art category.
10. Pottery - A functional piece of fired ceramic ware (bowl, vase, pot, etc.) The form can be wheel-thrown or hand-built, not slip cast in a mold. Porcelain is included in this category. Slip cast ceramics belong in Glazed or Stained/Painted ceramics categories. Sculptural clay pieces should be entered into the Sculpture category.
11. Black and White Photography - A monochromatic photograph using black and white and varying shades of grey or sepia tones. Photographs must be mounted and framed. This category includes both film and digital forms of photography. Sepia and other tonal prints such as Cyanotypes (blueprints) should be submitted into this category.

Grand Island VA Creative Arts Competition

12. Color Photography - A color photograph. Photographs must be mounted and framed. This category includes both film and digital forms of photography.
13. Digital Art - Art that was created using digital technology in the process of its creation. The work is created entirely with a computer and includes 2D graphics as well as 3D graphics. All original entries must be printed, mounted and framed to qualify for this competition. It is required that the software programs used be listed in the "mediums techniques used" section of the entry form. Use of Photoshop is not allowed for this category. Animation and videos will be disqualified. *Note: Digitally enhanced photography should not be entered into this category. Photography that has been digitally enhanced should be entered into either the Black and White Photography category or the Color Photography category.
14. Military Combat Experience - The medium used must be a fine art or applied art medium. Unlike the other art categories, there are NO restrictions as to when the artwork was created, however entries submitted previously into this category are not eligible to compete.

To enter this category there are four requirements:

- A Word document containing a typed statement/narrative (25 to 225 words) composed by the Veteran and/or his VA staff contact person explaining how the art relates to the Veteran's wartime experience. Entries submitted without a write-up will not be judged. Judging for this category equally takes into consideration the written narrative as well as the skill involved in the artwork.
- The Veteran must have experienced combat duty during World War II, Korean War, Vietnam, Gulf War, Grenada, Panama, Kosovo, Somalia and other recognized combats or current combat operations.
- The artwork must relate to the Veteran's personal experience in that war or conflict but does not need to be a graphic representation of that combat experience.
- Consent forms 10-3203 and 10-5345 (included in this handbook) must be signed and dated by the Veteran. The staff contact person submitting the entry for the Veteran should safeguard the signed consent forms at their VA facility.

Grand Island VA Creative Arts Competition

Applied Art Sub-Division Categories:

15. Glazed Ceramics - Clay pieces formed by pouring slip in a mold, bisque fired, and then finished with the application of glaze(s) and fired. Entries that contain bisque pieces that are painted and/or stained, as well as glazed, are to be entered into the painted ceramic category and finished with the application of stains or paints. If firing is the last step when creating your piece, the piece must be entered into Glazed Ceramics. Ceramics using both painting and glazing techniques should be entered into the stained or painted ceramics category.
16. Woodworking - This refers to pieces constructed of wood that may have a functional/useful purpose, such as a jewelry box, a chess set, a clock, etc. Wood lathe work or wood turning is included in this category.
17. Carving - Decorative art achieved by carving away unwanted materials from an original piece of material. It may be relief or in the round. Material used includes stone, wood, ivory and other hard substances. Note: Soapstone carving kits are to be included in this category.
18. Jewelry (not beads) - Jewelry pieces made through casting, channeling, lost-wax, wire wrapping, etc. Jewelry incorporating beads should be entered in the Beadwork category.
19. Crocheting/Knitting - The use of yarn or thread and a crochet hook, knitting needles or nifty knitters to create a pattern/design and is often a useful object.
20. Mosaic - The art of decoration with small pieces of colored glass, tile, stone or other hard material used to create a pattern or picture. Wood intarsia and marquetry are included in this category.
21. Collage - An artistic collage work may include newspaper clippings, ribbons, bits of colored or hand-made papers, portions of other artwork, photographs, and such, glued to a surface. Collage is two dimensional. Scrapbooks are not allowed.
22. Assemblage - A form of sculpture comprised of "found" objects arranged in such a way that they create a new piece. These objects can be anything organic or man-made. Assemblage is three dimensional. Personal collections alone (for example: coin collections, medal collections, etc.) will not be accepted. (Dioramas will not be accepted.)
23. Original Design in Needlework - This includes stitchery, needlepoint, quilting, sewing a garment, soft sculpture, embroidery, cross stitch, and crewelwork, etc. These are original designs created and completed entirely by the Veteran that are usually worked on fabric (occasionally leather) with a needle to create a finished piece. It may be flat or three-dimensional. Pre-printed patterns on the fabric, the use of commercial patterns, charts or graphs should be entered in the Fabric Art Kit category or Needlework Kit category.
24. Original Design in Fiber Arts - The use of a substance that can be separated into threadlike parts to create an original design in latch hook, rug punching, string art, basketry or weaving. Pre-printed patterns on the fabric, the use of commercial patterns, charts or graphs would be in the Latch Hook Kit category, Fabric Art Kit category, or Needlework Kit category.

Grand Island VA Creative Arts Competition

25. Knotting - Lacework made by knotting cords, thread or other fibers. Beads, shells or other decorative materials may be used. Macramé and fly tying are examples of techniques that are in the knotting category. Tatting is included in this category.
26. Leather Stamping - Involves the use of shaped implements (stamps) to create an imprint onto a leather surface, often by striking the stamps with a mallet. Pre-cut leather pieces may be used. Kits are not accepted in this category. Kits that contain stamping should be entered into the Leather Kit category.
27. Leather Carving/Tooling - Uses metal implements to compress moistened leather in such a way as to give a three dimensional appearance to a two dimensional surface. Pre-cut leather pieces may be used. The main tools used to "carve" leather include: Swivel knife, veiner, beveler, pear shader, seeder, cam, and backgrounder. The swivel knife is held like a pencil and dragged along the leather to outline patterns. The other tools are punch-type implements struck with a wooden or raw hide mallet. The object is to add further definition by them to the cut lines made by the swivel knife. Entries that contain both stamping and carving/tooling are to be entered into this category as well. Kits are not allowed in this category. Kits that contain leather carving/tooling should be entered into the Leather Kit category.
28. Metalwork - The primary material used is metal. Tooling or punching a design or transfer, or metal assembled into a three-dimensional piece for decorative purposes are included in this category. Lathe work using metal is included in this category. Copper tooling should be entered into Transfer/Engraving Art Kit category.
29. Glasswork - Glass is used as the primary medium. Examples would include stained glass, hand-blown glass, fused glass and glass etching and enameling. Commercially shaped glass items that have been painted would be in one of the Fine Arts Painting categories.
30. Beadwork - Beads of any kind are used to create a design. Examples would include beaded jewelry, beaded belts or other items made on a beading loom, etc.
31. Scroll Saw/Fretwork - Decorative open patterns cut out of wood or metal using a scroll saw and/or files.
32. Mixed Media - The distinct blending of two or more art techniques to create an object. The use of two or more applied or fine arts techniques (category types) in the creation of a single piece of art. *Entries in this category must include a description. The types of art techniques (category types) must be identified on the entry form. Example: Painting, Sculpture, Carving.

Special Recognition Categories

The Special Recognition category of the visual arts division is divided into two separate categories. The intent of these categories is to reinforce the concept of the arts as therapy, where an individual uses artistic expression to facilitate successful treatment outcomes. Entries and their accompanying written statement/narrative from the Veteran's VA staff contact person should focus on how the arts are used by the individual(s) to rise above severe limitations. Judging for this category equally takes into consideration the written narrative as well as the skill involved in the artwork. Entries submitted into the Art Special Recognition categories could be in the Fine Arts, Applied Arts, or Kits division and should be sent to Kari Fritz, National Art Chairperson.

48. Special Recognition Physical Disability - Entries that recognize individuals who exhibit creative expression through the visual arts while possessing significant physical limitations.
49. Special Recognition Mental Health Challenges - Entries that recognize individuals who exhibit creative expression through the visual arts while possessing significant emotional or mental health challenges.

Entries in each of the two Special Recognition categories MUST also include:

- A Word document containing a typed statement/narrative (25 to 225 words) composed by a VA staff person or the Veteran explaining why the Veteran is deserving of special recognition. Entries submitted without a write-up will not be judged.
- Consent forms 10-3203 and 10-5345 (included in this handbook) must be signed and dated by the Veteran. The staff contact person submitting the entry for the Veteran should safeguard the signed consent forms at their VA facility.

I have read and understand the foregoing, and I consent to the use of a verbal or written statement from me, and/or of my likeness and/or voice as specified for the above-described purpose(s). I understand that no royalty, fee, or other compensation of any kind will be made to me by the United States for such use. I understand that consent to obtain, produce, and/or use a verbal or written statement, photograph, digital image, and video or audio recording containing my likeness or voice is voluntary, and my refusal will not adversely affect my access to any present or future VA benefits for which I am eligible. I further understand that I may, at any time, rescind my consent prior to or during production of a photograph, digital image, or video or audio recording. I also understand that I may rescind my consent after production is complete if the burden on VA of complying with that request is not unreasonable considering the financial and administrative costs, the ease of compliance, and the number of parties involved.
